

SCL CONSTRUCTION LAW CONFERENCE 2016

CONSTRUCTION LAW IN SINGAPORE

A SPECIAL CASE

Thursday, 4 August 2016, 9.00 a.m. to 7.30 p.m.
Legends Ballroom, Hotel Fort Canning, 11 Canning Walk Singapore 178881

About this Conference

The movement towards greater specialisation in construction law is expected to enhance the quality of construction practitioners in Singapore as it strives to export its expertise across the region. This year's SCL (Singapore) Annual Conference will both debate the benefits and challenges of specialisation and explore some of the trending topics occupying our community.

Construction lawyers have been identified as the pilot for expert accreditation in Singapore and our Keynote Speaker, Justice Quentin Loh, has been tasked by the Chief Justice to lead the accreditation effort. Justice Loh will provide an update on progress as part of his Keynote Address.

This Conference will feature:

- A debate on specialisation & accreditation of construction practitioners
- A panel discussion on trending issues in compliance and due diligence in the construction industry
- Presentations on the Singapore International Commercial Court for construction disputes
- An in-house counsel panel : "What Keeps You Awake at Night?"

This Conference aims to bring together legal practitioners, in-house counsel and construction industry stalwarts from around Asia to discuss the future of our industry.

Who Should Attend

- Architects, developers, contractors, engineers, project managers, consultants, managing agents, management corporations and other professionals involved in the construction industry who deal with legal, regulatory and contractual issues
- Construction consultants
- Law, building & construction academics and students
- In-house counsel & legal officers working in the construction industry

14.00 – 15.30	SESSION 3: “THE SINGAPORE INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL COURT AND ITS ROLE IN THE RESOLUTION OF CONSTRUCTION DISPUTES AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF CONSTRUCTION LAW” The SICC was established in January 2015, as a division of the High Court of Singapore, and now sits alongside arbitration and normal Court proceedings, where construction disputes have traditionally been resolved. This is a development that will be watched closely by practitioners and parties in the construction industry. The SICC’s unique features distinguish it from Arbitration and normal Court proceedings in many areas including confidentiality, joinder, flexibility in evidential rules, document disclosure, and its international panel of eminent Judges. These unique features give the SICC the capacity to play a leading role in the both the resolution of Construction Disputes and the development of Construction Law. Session 3 aims to explore, at a relatively high level, the key features of the SICC that will be of interest to the construction industry, its potential role in the resolution of construction disputes, how it compares with the more traditional modes of dealing with such disputes, and the role that the SICC can play in the development of Construction Law. Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mr. Toh Chen Han – Council Member, Society of Construction Law (Singapore); Partner, Pinsent Masons MPillay LLP Speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Mr. Chan Leng Sun SC – Principal, Baker & McKenzie. He is a Member of the SIAC Users Council Executive Committee and Chair of the SIAC Users Council Committee for Australia and New Zealand.

Mr. Adrian Hughes QC – 39 Essex Chambers

Adrian Hughes practises construction and commercial law from 39 Essex Chambers with offices in London, Singapore and KL. Much of his work has an international element. He has a longstanding connection with China and other parts of Asia and frequently undertakes international arbitration and dispute resolution work for foreign parties in London, Singapore and the other major international centres.

He sits regularly as Arbitrator for international disputes. He also chairs and sits on Dispute Boards for international construction and infrastructure projects.

Adrian is a recent past Chairman of the United Kingdom Society of Construction Law. The SCL in the UK greatly values its close relationship with its counterpart in Singapore.

Mr. Simon Hughes QC – Keating Chambers

Simon Hughes joined Keating Chambers after coming top of his degree year at Oxford. He was made a Queen’s Counsel in 2011 and was one of the most junior applicants to be appointed that year. He specialises in major construction, engineering, shipbuilding and other off-shore and energy related disputes and is a leading senior counsel in these areas.

Whilst a lot of Simon’s work involves arbitration, he has particular experience of international power-plant disputes, major infrastructure projects and shipbuilding work, particularly in the Far East, and in disputes where the governing law is not English law. He has represented and advised clients on disputes in Hong Kong, Singapore, Korea, Australia, Dubai and other parts of the UAE, various islands within the Caribbean and New Zealand. He has been admitted to the Bar in Trinidad & Tobago and New Zealand for specific cases.

Mr. Philip Jeyaretnam SC – Managing Partner, Rodyk & Davidson LLP

Philip Jeyaretnam SC is Managing Partner of Rodyk & Davidson LLP. Appointed Senior Counsel in 2003 at the early age of 38, Philip specialises in commercial litigation and international arbitration work as counsel. Highly ranked by the leading legal directories for construction law, litigation and arbitration, his focus is on advocacy, both trial and appellate. A Fellow of both CiArb and SiArb, he has been appointed as arbitrator in ICC, SIAC and SCMA arbitrations. His professional and public service has included serving as a member of the Public Service Commission and of the Presidential Council for Minority Rights, and formerly as President of the Law Society of Singapore. Philip also chairs the board of Maxwell Chambers, the world’s first integrated dispute resolution facility

Mr. David Lavery - Asia Pacific Senior Counsel, Legal and Compliance, Black & Veatch (SEA) Pte Ltd

David Lavery leads the Black & Veatch Legal and Compliance team and is based in Singapore. Black & Veatch is a US based EPC company operating around the world primarily in critical human infrastructure projects. Originally from Canada, David has a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Ottawa and a Master of Laws from the University of Melbourne. He has lived in various countries working on major infrastructure projects and is admitted to practice in Ontario, Canada; Western Australia; and Papua New Guinea.

Mr. David Lawler - Managing Director, Forensic Investigations, Navigant

David has 25 years’ experience as a forensic accountant assisting multinationals in investigating and responding to their bribery and corruption challenges. He has advised on several headline FCPA settlements, and is the author of the book, Frequently Asked Questions in Anti-Bribery and Corruption. He has conducted compliance reviews across the world for oil and gas, pharma, construction, manufacturing, forestry and retail businesses, and has helped put in place world-class systems and procedures. David is also experienced in responding to regulators when things have gone wrong; in calculating and negotiating penalties; and has testified in a range of different tribunals around the world on questions of profitability and viability. Many of these cases have been data-heavy, and have had multi-jurisdictional angles.

Mr. Alex Moray - General Counsel APAC, M+W Group

Alex’s experience and specialisation includes advising on the development of projects and commercial agreements in the energy sector (including oil and gas, power and renewables), the related corporate sector (joint ventures and mergers and acquisitions) and the related infrastructure sector (EPC, PPP). In addition, his experience also includes advising on the financing components of projects. Alex is currently General Counsel APAC for M+W Group in Singapore advising on major projects in Asia Pacific and the Middle East. Prior to joining M+W, highlights of Alex’s in house experience include leading the legal team for BP on its first greenfield terminal development project in Iraq and leading the legal team for a US MNC on their first brownfield acquisition and development of a solar utility in the Philippines.

Before Alex moved in-house, highlights of Alex’s private practice experience include advising Exxon Mobil and CLP Power Hong Kong Limited for two years on natural gas supply and transportation arrangements in China and Hong Kong and advising the Republic of the Philippines Government from 2008 to 2010 in over 6GW and US$3bn worth of power asset privatisations and divestments. Before moving to Singapore in 2010, Alex was based in Hong Kong where he is qualified to practice law in addition to Australia.

Mr. Christopher Nunns - Council Member, Society of Construction Law (Singapore); Managing Director, Construction Solutions, FTI Consulting

Mr. Nunns is a Managing Director of Construction Solutions Asia for the Forensic and Litigation Consulting services sector of FTI Consulting Inc. Prior to joining FTI Consulting, Mr. Nunns has over 35 years of experience in the international construction industry working with both contractors and consultants. For the last 30 years he has been based in Singapore and principally involved in dispute resolution, arbitration, contract administration and claims management. He has given expert evidence for arbitration and court proceedings on numerous occasions and is a regular speaker at seminars and conferences in Singapore. Mr. Nunns is also accredited as an adjudicator in Singapore. Mr. Nunns is Council member and Past Chairman of the Society of Construction Law in Singapore and is a member of the ICE Editorial Advisory Panel.

Mr. Nunns graduated from Oxford University in 1976 and joined the Geotechnics Division of Ove Arup and Partners based in London. With Arup, Mr. Nunns was involved in challenging projects in Nigeria, Hong Kong, South Africa and Mauritius over a period of seven years. Mr. Nunns then moved to Singapore to work on the first phase of the MRT system, gaining experience with an international contractor on a major tunnelling contract. With a new interest in contract administration and claims, Mr. Nunns joined a specialist consultancy providing contractual and project management services in Singapore and internationally. Mr. Nunns is well known both locally and in the region for his work as expert and advisor.

Mr. Paul Sandosham - Honorary Secretary, Society of Construction Law (Singapore); Partner, Clifford Chance

Paul Sandosham is a partner in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice of Clifford Chance and heads the Energy, Infrastructure and Resources (Disputes) practice for South East Asia. He is admitted to the Singapore Bar and is on the roll of solicitors of England and Wales. He is qualified as a Chartered Arbitrator.

He is a Fellow of both the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCI Arb) and Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (FSI Arb). Paul is an accredited mediator with the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution in London (CEDR). Paul acts as counsel in court and international arbitration proceedings (under ICC, SIAC, DIAC, ADCCAC, UNCITRAL, ICSID Rules) for various parties in disputes arising out of large scale construction and infrastructure projects including commercial and residential developments, industrial buildings, resorts, hotels, toll roads, bridges, railways, pipelines, mines, FPSOs, offshore LNG terminals, mooring buoys, oil refineries, and power (coal, oil, natural gas, hydro & geothermal) and petrochemical plants. Paul has advised on a multitude of projects and disputes that have arisen across numerous jurisdictions, including in Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Brunei, Vietnam, India, Lao PDR, Philippines, UAE, Qatar, Bahrain, KSA, Mauritius, Maldives, Tanzania, Nigeria, China, Mongolia, Turkey and Papua New Guinea. He also has extensive experience in international trade and commodities disputes.

Paul is on the panel of arbitrators of SIAC, KLRCA, DIAC and CI Arb (London). He sits as sole arbitrator and tribunal chairman in international arbitrations relating to various types of disputes. He is a director of The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Singapore) Ltd and is the current Honorary Secretary of the Society of Construction Law (Singapore). He is on the Faculty of CI Arb where he teaches arbitration courses conducted by CI Arb. Paul is a co-Vice Chairman for International Arbitration in the Law Society's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, and a member of the appointments sub-committee responsible for appointing arbitrators under the Law Society of Singapore Arbitration Scheme (LSAS). He is a member of the Law Society's Foreign Lawyers Advisory Panel. Paul is recognised as a leading dispute resolution and construction lawyer and has been commended in numerous prominent legal publications including Chambers Global & Asia Pacific - The World's Leading Lawyers for Business, The Legal 500: Asia Pacific, Europe, Middle East & Africa, Global Arbitration Review's 100, Who's Who Legal The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers, Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Construction Lawyers, IFLR 1000 Energy and Infrastructure, Experts Guides Commercial Arbitration & Energy and Asian Legal Business.
