

25 YEARS OF UNFORESEEN CONDITIONS IN SINGAPORE

Thursday, 28 August 2008, 5.00-6.00pm, Suntec City NUSS Guild House, Level 5, Suntec City Mall

The Talk:-

25 years ago, construction of Singapore's MRT system commenced using a modified FIDIC Form of Contract. This was the first time that the concept of "conditions which could not reasonably have been foreseen" became widely debated in the local construction industry. It was also, very nearly, 25 years ago that the Speaker arrived in Singapore.

The initial enthusiasm for "Clause 12 claims" has subsided and many contractors are now deeply sceptical about the prospects of demonstrating that adverse conditions could not have been reasonably foreseen.

Using actual examples from the past 25 years, the Speaker will explain the principles and common pitfalls in the context of adverse conditions frequently encountered in Singapore.

After the presentation, we will convene the AGM for voting members only.

The Programme:

4.45-5.00pm	Registrations & Refreshments
5.00-5.05pm	Opening Remarks by Chairperson Mr. Naresh Mahtani – Chairman, SCL (Singapore)
5.05-5.45pm	25 Years Of Unforeseen Conditions In Singapore Mr. Christopher Nunns – Partner, EC Harris
5.45-6.00pm	Q&A Session & Closing Remarks
6.00pm	Networking Break for Delegates
6.00pm	The talk will be followed by the SCL (Singapore) Annual General Meeting (AGM) 2008. SCL (Singapore) Members in the audience are invited to stay on for the AGM.

The Speaker:-

Mr. Christopher Nunns – Partner. EC Harris

Mr Nunns has 30 years experience in the international construction industry working with both contractors and consultants. He graduated in geology from Oxford University and worked as an engineering geologist for 7 years. However, for the last 24 years he has been based in Singapore and principally involved in dispute resolution, arbitration, contract administration and claims management. He has given expert evidence for arbitration and court proceedings on numerous occasions and is a regular speaker at seminars and conferences in Singapore. Mr Nunns is a Contracts Advisor to the Singapore Contractors Association Ltd and is accredited as an adjudicator in Singapore. Mr Nunns is currently Vice Chairman of the Society of Construction Law in Singapore.
